

Pay Your Library Bill Online

Charleston County Public Library now offers online payment of fines and fees! Online payment is safe, convenient, and only takes a minute.

Online payments are processed by PayPal. PayPal is a company that arranges online payments while keeping your bank information private and secure. PayPal accounts are free, but you do not need a PayPal account to pay your library bill.

What you will need:

- Library card number
- PIN (If you are unsure of your PIN, contact the CCPL Phone Center at 843-805-6930 for assistance.)
- Credit or debit card
- A compatible web browser, such as Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, or Google Chrome.
- An email address for payment confirmation
- Optional: PayPal account

Here's how it works:

Visit www.ccpl.org and click on Catalog at the top.

Click on My Account in the top right.

You will be prompted to enter your library card number and PIN if you have not already logged in. Type in the information and click on Log In. Be sure to capitalize the D at the beginning of your card number. Contact your local branch or call 843-805-6930 for questions about your PIN.

Once you have logged in, you will see information for your library account, with sections for your personal information, checkouts, holds, and fines. Click on Fines to see an itemized list of what you owe.

You can pay for a single item or multiple items, as long as the total payment is at least $2.00. Check or uncheck the boxes next to each item until you have selected the ones you would like to pay. Notice the total displayed, then click on the PayPal button.

You will be redirected to PayPal's website. On the left you will see your order summary, containing the amount of your payment. The right side shows your payment options. You can pay as a PayPal member or as a guest.
