NOTE: CITY OF GOOSE CREEK ZONING ORDINANCE, SECTION 505, SUBSECTION 505.4.2.1

- All banner applications are subject to review by Staff.
Banner applications are exempt from review by the City's Architectural Review Board (ARB).
An applicant is limited to two (2) banners during the calendar year; however, only one (1) banner may be posted at a time.
Banners are limited to a maximum post time of thirty (30) days.
Banners must be located on the property, (out of the right-of-way,) and are prohibited from being strung between building or utility poles. No banner shall hang from a street light, utility pole, or publicly maintained structure.
Banners may not exceed fifty (50) square feet.

If said applicant wishes to erect a permanent sign, please contact the Department of Planning and Zoning for a Sign Permit Application. In addition, the applicant should review the City's Zoning Ordinances pertaining to sign regulations. Be advised to examine the ordinances thoroughly so as to avoid violations:

- Section 204.8.94: Definitions of signs
Section 204.8.95: Sign permit required
Section 505: Sign regulations
Section 1103: Penalty
